Birthday Card at Legislature

Canada Birthday Card found its way to the Legislative Assembly last week when Keith Everitt, M.L.A. for St. Albert, introduced Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sutherland to the Assembly. Premier Ernest Manning congratulated the St. Albert couple on their unique Centennial project and expressed the hope that many children would benefit from the contributions raised as the mammoth card travels across the broad Dominion.

His Honour Grant MacEwan and members of the Legislature added their signatures to the ever-growing list of Albertans who have contributed in this way to the Canadian Save the Children Fund. The Sutherlands report this

Have canoe will travel

And travel they will, from Peace River to Montreal in a birch bark canoe, a trip which is expected to take 154 days. . . . Mr. Adolf Ikert, whose long red beard has become a familiar sight in many different communities, and Mr. Guy Randall addressed the St. Albert and District Chamber of Commerce, February 14th and unfolded some of their plans for their fascinating cross-country canoe voyage. Mr. Ikert, who is a native of Pouce Coupe, B.C., hopes to leave on his journey around the end of April and plans to arrive in Montreal 154 days later. Mr. Ikert said, there will be a 10 man crew in the canoe at all times, along with dog Duke. The crew will be outfitted in costumes of the 1790's.

The group should arrive in St. Albert around the 22nd of May and intend to carry their 26 foot canoe down the Groat Road to continue their voyage down the mighty North Saskatchewan River. The roughest part of the trek will probably be along the North Shore of Lake Superior, where 20 ft waves are quite common. Mr. Ikert told us he had quite a difficult time finding a model of the canoe used by Alexander MacKenzie after which pattern his own boat. After much searching a model was finally found in an American box of Corn Flakes. . . . Mr. Guy Randall, who is the P.R. man for this expedition, narrated a film.

Centennial yours, Hennie Stibbe.

P.M. sends congratulations

Mr. Don Hunt, chairman of the St. Albert Centennial Committee, received a letter this week from Prime Minister L. B. Pearson congratulating the committee for its active program. Mr. Pearson advised that every effort will be made to have a representative from his government attend official opening ceremonies for the new library here.

St. Albert High opening March 10

The official opening of the St. Albert High School is to be held March 10th when Premier Manning will be guest speaker and an appropriate program has been arranged. The public will have an ideal opportunity to see this highly attractive and functional building, designed by John MacIntosh and Associates, Architects, which is a distinctive asset to our Town. The program will get underway at eight p.m. in the school gymnasium.

Guides and Brownies Celebrate Birthday

About 500 girls in the St. Albert Division Brownies and Guides gathered at the Parish Hall here on Saturday for celebrations to mark the birthday of the founder of the movement, Lord Baden Powell.

The Brownies held their Revel on the theme "Around the World" in the forenoon, with a full representation of the 8 packs of the Division (6 of St. Albert and one each from Winterburn and St. Albert). Following the opening ceremony - the "Brownie Ring", each pack presented its skit interpreting the theme. A pleasing variety of countries were depicted in different ways by each of the packs, in competition for a trophy. The 4th St. Albert were judged the winners and their leader, Mrs. J. H. Coward, was presented with the cup by Mrs. A. Vandenbos, Division Commissioner. A Centennial crest with a diamond for each country and centred with the Guide Centennial emblem, was fashioned by Mrs. Coward for the Friendship pennies donations by Brownies. The overflow was deposited in a wishing well and the pennies go to Ottawa for the Friendship Fund for helping underprivileged children in other parts of the world.

A large cake for Baden Powell had candle lighted to the strains of Happy Birthday and then all the girls enjoyed individual cup cakes, each with a candle to light, and a soft drink. The Brownie Squeeze ceremony closed a happy celebration.

In the afternoon it was the Guide's turn to celebrate the birthday and they chose "Pioneers" as their theme. Each Company interpreted this theme according to their individual choice and two of the six added displays to their skit. Indians, early pioneers and very early Guide work were presented in various ways. Opening ceremony took the form of marching and the presenting of colours, and for judging each Company was marked on their appearance and deportment for the opening as well as their skit. The 4th St. Albert was judged the winner, 1st St. Albert, runner-up and Morinville Company took 3rd place.

Judges panel comprised Mrs. Una Woodhead, Trainer from Edmonton area, and three St. Albert women formerly active in Guide work, Mrs. Wm. Cuts, Mrs. W. Blackie and Mrs. Doris Harvey.

Following their gift presentation for the Friendship Fund, the Guides enjoyed birthday cake and soft drinks at the close of a successful day.

Rising costs concern ratepayers

AT ANNUAL MEETING

Some fifty residents attended the annual ratepayers meeting held in the Community Hall Monday evening. The meeting which was chaired by Dr. Norman Dolman, received the Auditor's Financial Statement for 1966, heard the Mayor's Report and took part in a prolonged question period, with the climbing mill-rate and Urban Renewal the main items of concern.

St. Albert per capita debt for 1965 of $311, was compared to that of Peace River, which has approximately the same population. The per capita debt in that city was $366. The St. Albert mill rate of 62 also compares favourably with the 71 mills the Peace River residents are paying.

No immediate answer was available to the question of how the Town's cost of administration compares to that of other cities or towns of similar size. Staff is checking into this and the Mayor was asked to report the findings in his column in the Gazette.

The $14.00 bi-monthly water bill is still a sore-spot. It was explained that the $3.00 monthly sewer charge would never be removed completely, as sewers will always be in need of maintenance. If desired, however, Council could wipe out the monthly $3.00 fee, and add $36.00 to the home owner's taxes at the end of the year.

COUNCIL "bigotted"? No immediate answer, other than "possible 1 gas station" was available to Mr. D. E. Bull's question on how many Commercial Buildings were constructed in St. Albert last year and the year before.

Mr. Bull, who has long been interested in Urban Renewal, down-town development and Commerce in general, charged that Council "discouraged" and "hindered" Commercial Development and at one point said Council was so "bigotted" it completely overlooked the interests of the businessman. He said there exists a "shortage of retail space" and asked why not more such space had been constructed. Mr. Bull took up some 40 minutes of the ratepayers question period, but was not ruled out of order and allowed to complete his lengthy list of complaints and charges.

The Mayor replied that Council cannot go out and "more or less collar people" into building retail space. The Mayor verified that only one building permit had been turned down by the Town last year, that being Mr. Bull's application to erect a building on his property. He then proceeded to unroll a large plan showing Mr. Bull's proposed "temporary" shop, and went on to explain just why permission to build had not been granted.

BUILDING PERMITS TOP ONE AND HALF MILLION:

In his second annual report, Mayor Fowler notes that in

Not football signals, but dates to remember for the Leadership Seminar for which plans have now been finalized by the recreation department.

Sessions will begin Wednesday, March 8th and continue each Wednesday for a total of four, starting at 8:00 p.m. in the Clubhouse, 5 Grenfell Avenue. They are open to everyone and there is no charge.

The purpose of this course is to encourage the free flow of ideas and information on what recreation should be in our town, and to locate and develop latent leadership qualities among our citizens.

This seminar is different from workshops and courses held from time to time to train leaders for a specific task, such as playground leadership training. The emphasis is rather on developing qualities of leadership which will enable people to fit into the broad overall recreation program in any part of it which interests them. Instruction will be given in such areas as how to know and communicate with your neighbour. How to get your ideas across to a group. How to lead a youth group or an adult organization. The technique of assuming leadership in an emergency. Where to turn for help in a crisis. Following instruction on such matters as these, general discussion will follow each session.

Prominent speakers are being brought in to deliver the keynote address at each of the four sessions, March 8th and 22nd, April 5th and 19th. There is much to be gained from these sessions, so try to keep these dates open. You are never too young or too old to lead.

Al Anon group formed here

An Al Anon Family Group for wives, other family members or friends of alcoholics, has been formed this month in the Town of St. Albert. The meetings for the present time are being held every Tuesday evening at 8:30 p.m. in the home of one of the members. On April 18th, and every following Tuesday the study group will meet in the Clubhouse. Anyone is welcome to attend who is interested in the problem of alcoholism. For further enquiry you may call Mrs. Joy C. Bertsch in the Welfare Department, Civic Centre (Phone: 599-6601 extension 34).

MAYOR'S COLUMN

The General Assessment of the Town has been recently completed and starting today Notices of Assessment will be mailed to every ratepayer in Town. In comparing this assessment with your last assessment, the first thing you will undoubtedly notice is the increase in land assessment. Over the past years, land in St. Albert has been assessed at 40% of market value. The new General Assessment has set the assessment at 65% of market value. (This is the identical percentage used in the City of Edmonton). In great many instances you will also notice a decrease in the assessment on your improvements. As your house becomes older, it automatically depreciates if no improvements have been made, such as rumpus rooms, garages, etc. In any case an increased assessment DOES NOT automatically mean an increase in taxes. It is hoped that the mill rate which is struck this year will compensate for any changes in the assessment. Notwithstanding the new General Assessment, if an increase in taxes is necessary the General Assessment will not have been the deciding factor.

According to the Budget which was brought down ten days ago in the Legislature, the Town will be assessed an extra 2 mills for the Education Foundation Programme. We will now contribute 28 mills on the equalized assessment instead of 26 mills. As indicated at Monday's Annual Ratepayers Meeting, your Council has no magic bag to pull this money from, and as a result it will have to be passed on to the Ratepayers. Once again - this in itself DOES NOT mean an automatic increase in taxes. If we are to believe what we hear from the Legislature we might expect a corresponding decrease in the Supplementary Requisition from our two School Boards. Whether this will be possible or not is the responsibility of the School Boards only. Of one thing you can be sure, and that is that neither the School Boards nor Council are particularly gleeful when increased taxes are necessary, and I am convinced all bodies will do whatever is within our respective powers to keep the taxes as low as possible while at the same time providing what we believe to be entirely adequate facilities in both the education and municipal field.

Centennial Oratory wins judges praise

Judges had nothing but high praise for the high calibre of performance by the students of the Father Jan School in their Centennial Oratory competitions. Elizabeth Gorka, Connie Viveiros and Brigitte Chelkowski were winners in the three divisions for Grades 5 and 6, 3 and 4 and 1 and 2 respectively.

Weeks of preparation, during which every student participated by being afforded an opportunity to speak to an audience, went into the project which culminated Wednesday February 22nd, in the finals. Parents and friends were on hand in the auditorium to hear the speaking and judges' adjudication.

The value of developing the ability of self expression while standing in front of an audience was stressed by Principal John Kaminski in his remarks. And the well delivered presentations by the young students, showing careful preparation and practice, certainly bore him out.

Adjudicating the presentations were Mrs. N. M. Ross, Father C. Levangie O.M.I.

and Mr. A. B. Blair, who based their decisions on 20% on each of the following: Interest value and subject coverage; arrangement, coherence and knowledge; forcefulness and audibility; enunciation and pronunciation; posture, movement and stage manner. In view of the high standard merit certificates were issued to all participants.

Room finalists were Monique Gervais, Tyler Sadler, Cornelius Commandeur and Moira Sheehan, Gr. one; Brigitte Chelkowski and Dennis Lafleur, Gr. two; Torresa Bruinink and Giselle Meunier, Gr. three; Connie Viveiros and Catherine Bedell, Gr. four; Helene Leblanc, and Maria Viveiros, Gr. five; Lorraine Gallant and Elizabeth Gorka, Gr. six.

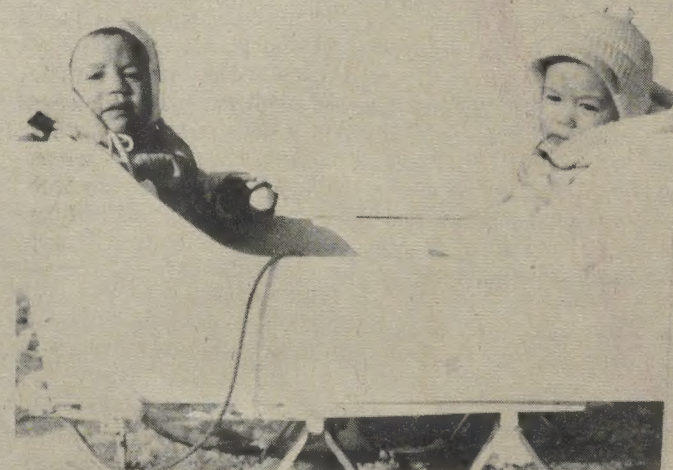

Chamber promotes shopping here

The St. Albert and District Chamber of Commerce will begin a promotional program during 1967 to encourage Edmonton evening shoppers to patronize St. Albert shops. St. Albert has 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. shopping six days per week.

"We have the facilities and many Edmontonians shop in St. Albert now," said Chamber President Jim Byrne. "When Jasper Place late shopping hours are discontinued next January, we expect an increase in shopping activity in St. Albert and our Chamber will do everything possible to serve these customers."

Industrial Development Chairman Robert Russell said that "We hope to promote an Edmonton Shoppers' Night in the fall of 1967". "The main purpose will be to bring Edmontonians out to St. Albert and to get them acquainted with our merchants and our many services" he said. Mr. Russell said that there was new shopping centre on the drawing boards and that "St. Albert will be able to offer a large variety of goods and services for the evening shopper."

The Chamber will consider the proposals at next month's regular meeting.

No room for religion in school factories

Third in a series of articles looking at various problems and situations affecting today's society from the viewpoint of a Christian. Readers comments or opinions on the subject discussed this week will be welcome, and may be directed to The Gazette (P.O. Box 263) St. Albert, to reach the writer.

Sex education is a hot potato. But there is an even hotter one in the view of many school authorities - religious education! In Alberta and across the Dominion this issue raises more questions than it answers. Unfortunately for the school authorities the matter is too important to be solved by dumping it back in the lap of the parents and the churches.

Religion shapes and gives meaning to society as well as individual human life. It is the foundation upon which our civilization has been built. Only an idiot would insist that our way of life will continue if we do not transmit its spiritual basis to the next generation.

Most people undoubtedly look upon education as a means to an end. "You get an education in order to hold down a job". From this point of view education is an extension of industry. Indeed it is now a powerful industry in its own right. From its high campus towers the educational assembly line produces a steady stream of trained operatives (teachers) whose purpose is to shape the raw material (children) in the factory (the local school) until the final product has acquired those basic skills essential for survival in an industrialized society.

Small wonder then that schools neglect the very matters which might be of greatest value to the student and society, for at present the transmission of our culture must inevitably play second fiddle to the need to earn a living. What is equally significant is the marked reluctance of educators, school staff and school boards to become involved in teaching programs which they consider controversial. It is not therefore surprising that the teaching of religion is being squeezed out of our schools at the very time when religion and religious thought have come alive in new and vital ways.

Does religion matter? Yes, for even an intelligent atheist such as Bertrand Russell will concede that religion always deals with important things. Events in pre-war Germany and Russia certainly suggest that where the religious basis of our civilization is not passed on to the next generation the values we cherish disappear and a free society cannot survive.

If religion is so important to society, why the pressure to remove it from our schools? The most important cause is undoubtedly the fact that we live in a post Christian society. Educators, teachers and trustees, are reflecting the public's lack of Christian conviction when they fail to press for better religious teaching. Some, to their credit having clear convictions, militantly oppose the teaching of what they consider to be an outdated superstition. A second factor, among Protestants at least, is the inability of these churches to agree among themselves. Even more important is the increasing concern of leading church educators at the superficiality of present patterns of religious instruction. Catholic instruction is thorough but often ineffective. Protestant use of the Bible and the Lord's Prayer is recognized to be an effective inoculation against real religion.

A new approach is long overdue. Long term, only departments of religion at the university level can provide the objective training teachers need to handle the subject effectively. The need for churches to produce a simple, vital ecumenical interpretation of the Christian Faith for use in all our schools is obvious. Right now we should be using specialists to teach religion in the high schools and urging educators to develop programs of religious education for the primary and junior high school grades. So important a matter ought not to be swept under the carpet.

A rainbow for Canada

by Patricia Hamilton.

Someone has reported a stolen church in Windemere, B.C. It was stolen in 1899 but can be seen by Centennial travellers and is a favourite subject of painters. In 1899 the CPR moved the residents of Donald, B.C. to Revelstoke. One enthusiastic parishioner could not bear to leave the little church abandoned in Donald. The man moved to Windemere, and without asking anyone's permission, took the church with him.

Here are a few off-beat Centennial projects from across Canada. A high school boy in Ontario plans to walk to Expo from his home, a distance of 200 miles. Nanaimo, B.C. residents are taking names of contestants for a thirty-two mile bath tub race. If you own a bath tub with a 6-horse power outboard motor and know your way from Nanaimo, across the Straits of Georgia, to the West Vancouver Yacht Club, then why not join the fun?

Starting date is July 1, 1967. Prisoners in a Nova Scotia jail are working on a special illustrated history of the Maritime provinces. It should be in print by the end of 1967. They had some difficulty obtaining material from archives as they could not go to pick it up. But prison authorities were interested in the project and are running errands for the inmates. London, Ontario put up Centennial billboards to usher in 1967 but they must have had too much cheer ushering out 1966. The billboards read, "Happy Centennial Year, Have a Wonderful."

Hooray to the Stan Trout rink from Ross Shepherd High School for bringing another Centennial first to Alberta. The curling was staged in Flin Flon, Manitoba, but Alberta took all the honours.

Our salute goes to everyone who attended the Centennial skating party on Sunday. A personal salute must go to the weatherman, who co-operated beautifully.

Mission Hill was a busy place on Sunday afternoon when the glorious weather drew scores of young and old to enjoy an outing on its attractive slopes.

Sturgeon school division clarifies high school matters

The Board of the Sturgeon School Division No. 24 wish to present some facts to clarify certain school matters of local interest and concern:

1. The Board with the approval of the Minister of Education has concluded tuition agreements this past year with the following school systems: Edmonton Public, Edmonton Separate, St. Albert Public, St. Albert Separate, Westlock School Division and Legal S.D. #1738. The agreements provide for the education of specified students.
2. There has been a tuition agreement, also approved by the Minister, in effect with Thibault Roman Catholic Public S.D. No. 35, in Morinville since September 1961, to educate divisional high school students from the Cunningham School attendance area; and since 1964 to educate Grade 9 students and to provide the Advanced French Course to certain specified students in Grades 1 to 8 inclusive, from the same attendance area.
3. The Divisional Board has operated and will continue to operate the Cunningham School in Morinville, Grades 1 to 8.
4. All schools in the Division are public schools and, as such, are open to all divisional pupils of all faiths, and to non-divisional students for whom there is a tuition agreement with another school authority.

ate without levying a supplementary requisition by gaining a few high school students because of the 300 dollar per pupil grant allowed under the Foundation Program.

6. In determining the schools to which to send high school students last year, the Board got the opinion of parents, so that wherever feasible, the children would be assigned to the school of the parents' choice. Those pupils whose parents lived in the St. Charles School attendance area, north of the east-west main road through Morinville were given the choice of attending either Thibault High School, or a high school in St. Albert. Only one high school student took advantage of the offer to attend Thibault High School.

7. The main reason for sending high school students to schools outside the Division, by tuition agreement, was to provide the best possible educational opportunity for the students concerned. It had been found impossible to reach agreement on a single high school centralization within the Division, or even on more than one larger high school able to offer a sufficiently broad program to be appreciably better than that available in any of the small high schools in the area. The secondary reason was the urgency of securing additional

Safeguards required if speed limits lifted

by Robert Russell, Liberal Candidate, Highways Minister Gordon Taylor said in Calgary on Saturday that he believes that speed limits should be lifted from some of Alberta's highways.

Today's modern automobile is capable of travelling safely at speeds of 75 to 85 miles per hour or higher but I'm concerned that the minister did not set down some conditions to his proposal for removal of speed limits.

In the first place, not all cars are mechanically sound and some are not even fit for the road. Compulsory testing of vehicles is long overdue in this province and I believe that one test per year is sufficient if proper testing stations were set up. Vancouver requires two checks per year and has operated a modern testing station for over ten years. One can get through the test in just under ten minutes so there is little inconvenience to the motoring public.

In the second place, we must have a fool-proof system of compulsory public liability.

FROM THE LEGISLATURE, by Keith Everitt, M.L.A. Debates on the Budget Speech are well underway and a number of new Bills and amendments on previous Bills have now been introduced. There has been some important news releases, and the one that pleases me most of course, is the item that I have worked on for a number of years. The contracts to rebuild Highway No. 37, 10.22 miles were advertised on February 17th, and the tenders will be opened on March 8th. May I take this opportunity to thank the Village Council and the Chamber of Commerce of Gibbons for the assistance they gave me, also the F.U.A. of Sunnyside and Notre Dame.

The Budget Speech indicates that a million dollar grant will be given to the towns and villages for the improvement of streets and roads. This is a new program and I'm sure will be welcomed by all.

I had the opportunity to speak on the Budget Debate Thursday afternoon. Here I outlined some of my complaints with the Taxation and Assessment Act. It is my belief that it would be far more practical and wiser to reverse the present plans. If the government was to proceed with the Municipal Act and hold the new Taxation and Assessment Act for a year's study, it would be well accepted by the various municipalities. The serious problems of tax exemptions, and assessing farm buildings on small parcels of land is of such importance that I have requested public meetings to discuss the same. Other problems which I outlined are: (1) Inspection Branch of Attorney General -- My request here is that the Inspection Branch carry on their inspection of school buses without lifting the license plates if a bus is condemned. It should be easy enough to condemn a bus by just putting a sticker on the window and a heavy fine if the bus is used. The idea of lifting license plates appears to be a childish and unwarranted procedure. After all, our bus drivers are adults.

(2) I have requested the Department of Highways to make a study of the feasibility of having sand and gravel trucks tarped. The complaints of pitted and cracked windshields is mounting.

(3) Hunter Training Program -- I recommended that anyone obtaining a big game hunting license for the first time should have to take this program; also any hunter who has an offence under the Game Act if he wants his license back the same year. Three of us (including my wife) in my family have our certificates from the Hunter Training Program. This is an excellent program. Instructors are available and I would only be pleased to arrange to have these men come to any community in this constituency.

(4) A new university campus - Most of my representation on this very important development is with the Ministers in their offices. I barely mentioned it in the budget debate. After all experience has proven that few achievements are obtained on the Floor of the House.

If any of my constituents wish to contact me, phone 424-8055.

N.D.P. speaks out on free enterprise

by Norman G. Dolman, St. Albert Candidate.

In the past the New Democratic Party has often been said to have been opposed to free enterprise; it is time to set the record straight.

The N.D.P. is not only FOR free enterprise, but is the only hope that we have of retaining free enterprise in this country. The biggest headache of the small businessman, farmer and private individual is not government interference but pressure from big business and corporations. Free enterprise exists for the "little guy" but has almost disappeared at the corporate level. The aim of the large corporations is to eliminate all competition while at the same time paying lip-service to the principle of private enterprise.

What will the N.D.P. do about this?

In Alberta, the N.D.P. will develop the Athabasca Tar Sands under a Crown Corporation, therefore ploughing back vast profits into the Alberta Treasury, instead of standing by while the profits are shipped outside this country.

The N.D.P. will run utilities as public companies, similar to Alberta Government Telephones or the City of Edmonton water system. Electricity, water, gas and telephone services will be PUBLIC utilities. If it were not for the profits (yes, profits) of the public utilities in the City of Edmonton, the taxpayer's assessment would increase by 9 mills. Just imagine the saving to the tax-payer if this was done on a province-wide scale.

ALL other businesses, farms, homes, investments will remain untouched. The N.D.P. believes in the family farm - it believes that everyone should own his own home if he wishes - that he should own and run his business without interference. In short we believe not only in the freedom of the individual, but that something positive should be done to regain and maintain that freedom.

The N.D.P. does not believe that the old-line parties (which includes Social Credit) will or can do anything about this situation. They have all sat on their hands for many years and there is no reason to expect that they will not continue to replace action with talk throughout Canada's next 100 years.

ST. ALBERT 100 years ago

A Centennial Project by Mr. Jim Drysdale. This concludes our description of conditions 100 years ago by Victoria Calihoo. Her article and the previous series by Father Alexis Tetreault O.M.I. were first published in Alberta Historical Review, and we extend our thanks to the Editor of the Review, Mr. Hugh Dempsey.

CENTENNIAL QUIZ

What "coinage" was used in St. Albert in 1867? Remember the best answer received at Box 67, St. Albert, wins a Centennial Flag.

We have a flag winner! To the question "When did the R.C.M.P. come to St. Albert?" (The R.C.M.P. were not here in 1867 and it was in 1873 that the N.W.M.P. were formed. Our "experts" tell us the first detachment settled at Fort Saskatchewan in 1875.

EARLY LIFE IN LAC STE ANNE continued from last week....

During the buffalo hunts, some settler would go on through to Red River for supplies that weren't available here. They would bring back plows, garden tools and tubs. They would return in the fall and usually two families or more would come back with them to settle out here. These families came in wagons. (Firewater) whiskey would be brought in from Winnipeg, and rum and brandy were sold or bartered by the H.B.Co.

We had no soap, but we made lopotash from fats or grease with ashes lye. We used it for our toilet and washing soap. Perhaps it was rather hard for the delicate skin, but it was as good as any soap I have used. Some of us still use la potash to this day.

No brooms were to be had at the store. We made them out of a certain kind of willow. We chose the long taper kind. These sticks were taken from the tops, about two feet long. About 100 of these would be tied together around a four-foot smooth stick - this was the broom handle. The stick was driven into the centre of the tied willows, and our broom was ready for use.

ALL PURPOSE MOSS

Moss was pulled up in the fall, after haying. Little spruce trees were cut halfway, about two feet from the ground, the upper part pushed down, and we put our moss on top of this sort of rack, where it would dry before winter set in. It was hauled in as needed. Moss was a household necessity. We raised our babies with it. We stuffed it in moss bags in which our babies were laced up. We did not use any diapers. We used moss to wipe floors after scrubbing them.

We cultivated our land - an acre or two - with a ten-inch plow. An ox was round the place and for hauling hay, but the ponies were used for fast travelling, as going to weddings and dances, and, in case of sickness, to get the priest. When plowing was done, a wooden harrow was then dragged on the plowed land, usually a boy leading the horses. The seeds

Last week's photo of a log house, reprinted from Alberta Historical Review was of a much later vintage than 100 years ago. were sown broadcast. Fences were made of rails laid on blocks. The oxen and horses were driven singly. We had no double harness.

Our hogs were spotted, black and white. They were brought by boat up river by the H.B.Co. Our haying equipment was an Armstrong mower (scythe), wooden forks with wooden prongs, which were rather cumbersome. When the hay was dry, it was gathered with the forks and cocked. We had no hay-rakes. When all the hay was cocked, it was left to settle for a few days, and it was brought in by two men with two poles. These poles were shoved under the cock, about two feet apart, then the whole cock would be lifted clean and brought to the stack. Round hay stacks were put up. We had no hay-racks. Small racks were built on long-runner sleighs, a sort of stone box. Oxen hauled the hay home in winter.

Of course, we had dog-trains, too, for faster trips. One didn't care when one left for a trip with dog-team, morning, noon or evening. My husband left Lac Ste Anne in the evening and arrived at the "House", Edmonton before sunrise the following morning.

After the hunts were over, some people went down to Morley or Man-a-chap-pan-nihh (meaning "where the bows were taken"). This is how Bow River got its name, which is wrong. Bow River in Indian is "Ask-ka-we-seeppee," which means "Don't-freeze-over-river;" this river was never known to be frozen over all winter for ponies crossing it.

Better and cheaper horses were later brought up from the Blackfeet of the Old Man River.

BARTER SYSTEM

We bartered our furs at the H.B.Co. Usually the Company advanced a settler with credit after haying, and on through the year until the trapper brought in his catch. Often the fur would more than pay the debt the settler owed and the Store would owe him. He would draw this, off and on. As there was no money, this transaction was called "Fur". So much fur for this, and so much fur for the other article. Later on, when the Indian Commissioners came to pay Treaty Money, (late seventies), money began to circulate. It seemed more confusing to deal in money when one was accustomed to barter. I have heard of some Indians trading a used five-dollar bill for a brand new dollar bill.

We used to see Battle River people, off and on. Since they were Metis of French extraction like us, good fellowship prevailed, and some marriages took place. We did not come in contact with the Metis at Victoria; their being of Anglo-Saxon descent and of a different denomination, no visits, to my knowledge, were ever made to them.

1966 there were 43 residential building permits, 11 institutional and commercial permits and 85 miscellaneous permits issued. Add to this the new water reservoir and the swimming pool for a total permit value of $1,879,661. There are at present only 5 lots left in Sturgeon Heights stage 5, and it is anticipated that sidewalks and boulevards will be constructed in this area during 1967.

The Mayor said the Arena Committee is experiencing some difficulty in obtaining an adequate building with the amount set out in the By-law ($75,000). The Committee is expected to make a recommendation to Council next month.

of a large centralized high reached. No approach to the County School Committee was made by the Thibault School

Legal K.C.'s Challenge St. Albert

Fresh from an inspired effort at hockey on Sunday
the Legal K. C. Council's oldtimer team is ready and waiting for neighbouring Councils to challenge them to a match. They took on the Senior B's team, sponsored by Shell Oil of Legal, on Sunday and the loss of this one in no way dims their confidence that they can take on any team of K.C. old-timers.

Brothers R. St. Martin,
Father Houde, C. Maurier and Rod St. Martin were the flashy goal scorers for the K. C.'s. The efforts of these speedy stars were somewhat hampered however by some team mates who were a bit
rusty on the rules.

Penalties were handed out to W. Van De Walle for playing with the "wrong end of his stick", to D. St. Martin for wrestling (?) on the ice, to L. Monpetit for playing with a broken stick and Grand Knight R. Boissonneault for speeding!

A wonderful time was had by all and this fabulous team is keeping in top shape while waiting for a response to their challenge match offer to other K. C. Councils.

Fire destroys 250 roosters

On Sunday evening, an explosion from a propane stove
in a chicken house on the farm of George Wojtkiw, located north-east of Morinville, destroyed some 250 pure bred imported roosters.

Mr. and Mrs. Wojtkiw were away from home at the time, but a fourteen year old son was at home and called the Morin-
ville Volunteer Fire Brigade,
who responded promptly.

The building and contents
were a complete loss and considerable damage was also done to a three ton farm truck
parked along side the burning building.

Legal credit union

February 22nd, marked the 23rd annual meeting of the Legal Savings and Credit Union Ltd.

The evening began with a delicious turkey supper prepared by the Ladies of Legal Community Hall and served to some 150 fellow members after which the meeting was called to order at 8:15 p.m.
under the presidency of Mr.
Leonard Blanchette.

As in the past the draw
was made for the door prize
and Mrs. Yvonne Reginbald of Legal was the lucky winner of $10.00.

After the lecture of the minutes and reports from the various committees along with the presidents report, the president announced to the meeting that the Board of Directors and the committees of the organization were proposing to build a new building of their own. He also stressed the point that this was not due to discontent on the part of the Credit Union Board, but simply that it is now felt that with the continued growth of this organization the space
now occupied is by no means adequate.

The tentative plans were on display for the inspection of the members present, we may point out at this time that any one interested in looking at the plans is welcome to do so at the office anytime.

After some lengthy discussions for and against progress
the meeting was asked to voice their opinion on the matter, entertaining a motion and received same from the floor in favour of this project and this motion was supported by the majority of the members present.

Although many things still have to be ironed out, the Board wishes to advise the public that they will proceed with the members interests in mind and that they will do everything in their power to assure them of continued

growth and reasonable returns on their investments.
Projections based on the past years growth presented by Mr. Ed Ouellette from the Credit Union League of Alberta are not unrealistic
at all, in all confidence Mr.
Ouellette reassured us that with his experience in this field we are doing the right thing to go ahead with this project and assured us further that the Government as well as the League were behind us 100%.

The Board and other committee men would like to thank the following men who have gone out of their way to attend
our meetings and bring words of encouragement, Mr. Harold Webber supervisor of Credit Unions for the Government of Alberta; Mr. E. J. Ouellette, General Manager of the

berta; Mr. Joseph Nault, Dep-

May we also thank the kind ladies that prepared the wonderful supper and those that

Senior Citizens gain momentum

From a small beginning this winter the St. Albert Senior Citizens Club has grown steadily and almost 60 people turned out for the regular card party last Friday at Youville Home. The same is true of the social functions for the group, which started off with every other Friday and are now planned for every Friday. Under the direction of Mr. Elmer Harrison, Recreation Director, the Club has attracted the interest of the Welcome Wagon ladies, United Church Women and the Ladies Auxilliary to Youville, whose enthusiastic support has meant a great deal to the success and growth of the Club.

Pot Luck Supper nets $330

Mrs. Evelyn Lavallee, vice president of the Morinville Christian Womens' League, presented a cheque to Rev. Father G. H. Primeau, pastor for the sum of $330.00 the net proceeds of the International Pot Luck Supper, at the recent meeting of the League, on behalf of all the ladies who contributed to the successful project.

The February meeting was chaired by Mrs. Lavallee in the absence of president Mrs. Joe Leduc.

A very informative and interesting panel discussion was held on the subjects: "What do Adults expect from Teenagers", (with Mrs. Andy Gervais and Mrs. Blanche Boissonnault representing the mothers) and "What do the Teenagers expect from the Adults" (by Miss Helen Hogue president of the "Cool Spoolers" 4-H sewing club; and Mr. Paul Riopel, president of the Morinville youth committee). Rev. Father Armand Beaupre was the moderator.

Plans were also mentioned for a fall parish bazaar. The tentative dates were set for November 25 and 26.

The drive for used nylons was also supported by the group, and all donations of used nylons will be received at each meeting. All used nylons will be sent to the Veterans Hospital for craft work and other chronic centres for the same purpose.

Next month the roll call will be answered with a donation of a new apron from each member for the bazaar.

Volunteers to visit the sick and shut ins was also requested at this meeting. The drive for all used toys and articles needing paint or repair, but may be of use again is also underway. House cleaning time is a good opportunity to clear out all unwanted toys and household articles. These may be delivered to the residence of Mrs. Joe Leduc. All these articles will be used to give to needy families with children.

The next meeting is scheduled for March 21st, at the meeting rooms of the Recreation Centre.
